

Paul WADELL

Paul Wadell is Professor Emeritus of Theology and Religious Studies at St. Norbert College in De Pere, Wisconsin. A native of Louisville, Kentucky, he received his B.A. from Bellarmine University, his M. Div. and M.A. in moral theology from the Catholic Theological Union in Chicago, and his Ph.D. in theology from University of Notre Dame. He is the author of several books, including Friendship and the Moral Life; Becoming Friends—Worship, Justice and the Practice of Christian Friendship; The Primacy of Love—An Introduction to the Ethics of Thomas Aquinas; Happiness and the Christian Moral Life—An Introduction to Christian Ethics; and, most recently, Living Vocationally—The Journey of the Called Life, co-authored with Charles Pinches. Paul has published articles on Catholic moral theology and spirituality in both scholarly and popular journals and has given lectures and workshops both in the United States and abroad. He is currently involved in several projects on behalf of Holy Cross Province. In the Congress, he is a panellist in the final Round Table.

